

Anthony “Tony” Hool

Umpire Category

Inducted November 2016

Anthony “Tony” Hool began his NSA career as an umpire in the adult men’s slowpitch division in 1992 and has had a positive impact on the NSA program. Tony has dedicated his talent and skills as an umpire to provide the teams with quality officiating. Tony’s ability to keep control of a game is reflected by his confidence when on the field and his work ethic. Tony strives to excellence in umpiring from himself as well as those around him.

In 1996 Tony was awarded the National State UIC of the year award and in 2014, he was awarded the Eddie Cantrell Slowpitch National Umpire of the Year award.

On November 10, 2016, Tony Hool was inducted into the NSA Sports Hall of Fame in the Umpire Category.
